IN RE CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION CREDITS FOR SUMMER PRE-LAW PROGRAM AND LECTURE SERIES

SUPREME COURT NO. 2022-ADM-0011-MSC

ORDER

¶ 1 The Judiciary is sponsoring the ninth Summer Pre-Law Program, slated for June 27, 2022 to July 13, 2022. Consistent with tradition, the program professors will be presenters in the Law in the Community Lecture Series, discussing current issues in the Northern Marianas.

¶ 2 The Court encourages members of the CNMI Bar Association to participate in the program by serving as attorney-mentors or by attending the Law in the Community Lecture Series presentations. The Court recognizes that attorney-mentors dedicate their time mentoring Pre-Law participants in their studies and the moot court competition. The Court also acknowledges that the Law in the Community Lecture Series focuses primarily on legal issues, but is open to the general public.

¶ 3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that a one-time CLE credit shall be granted for (1) mentoring in the Judiciary's Summer Pre-Law Program and (2) attending the Law in the Community Lecture Series presentations pursuant to section 3(b) of the Commonwealth Rules for Continuing Legal Education ("CLE"). For every hour spent mentoring, one CLE credit will be granted, with a maximum of four CLE credits that may be earned. For each Law in the Community Lecture Series presentation attended, one CLE credit will be granted, with a maximum of four CLE credits that may be earned.

SO ORDERED this 25th day of April, 2022.
