February 3, 1970

Before SHOECRAFT, Chief Justice, BURNETT and

SHOECRAFT, Chief Justice

When an appeal is taken and it is neither briefed nor argued by the appellant, this Court should not be required to search the record to ascertain whether or not there is a valid appeal, and we decline to do so.

The appeal herein is dismissed for want of prosecution and for failure to comply with Rule 31c of the Rules of Criminal Procedure (also applicable in civil actions).
